PROVIDED that a new entrant to the service of the Authority shall make such a declaration before the expiry of six months from the date of entry into service.

- (2) A declaration of home town once made and accepted by the Competent Authority, shall be treated as final, but in exceptional circumstances a Competent Authority may, for reasons to be recorded in writing, authorize a change in any such declaration, provided that such a change shall not be authorized more than once during the entire service of the employee.
- (3) Every request for change of hometown by an employee shall be supported by reasons such as ownership of immovable property of permanent residence of near relative.

5. Admissibility of Leave Travel Concession

- (1) The leave travel concession shall be admissible irrespective of the distance between the headquarters of the employee and his home town, once in a block of two calendar years, such as 2002-03, 2004-05 commencing from the year 2002-03.
- (2) The leave travel concession to any place in India shall be admissible irrespective of the distance of the place of visit from the headquarters of the employee, once in a block of four calendar years, i.e., 2002-05, 2006-09.
- (3) An employee whose family lives away from him at his home town may, in lieu of all concessions under this regulations, including the leave travel concession to visit any place in India once in a block of four years which would otherwise be admissible to him and members of his family, choose to avail of leave travel concession for self only to visit the home town every year.

7. Counting of Leave Travel Concession against Particular Blocks

An employee and members of his family availing of leave travel concession may travel in different groups at different times during a block of two or four years, as the case may be and the leave travel concession so availed of shall be counted against the block of two years or four years within which the outward journey commenced, even if the return journey was performed after the expiry of the block of two years or four years.

An employee who is under to avail of the leave travel concession within a particular block of two years or four years may avail of the same within the first year of the next block of two years or four years. If an employee is entitled to leave travel concession of home town, he can carry forward the leave travel concession to any place in India for a block of four year only in he has carried forward the leave travel concession to home town in respect of the second block of two years within the block of four years.

8. Place to be visited by an Employee and members of his family under leave travel concession to any place in India

An employee and each member of his family may visit different places of their choice during a block of four years. It shall not be necessary for members of family of an employee to visit the same place as that visited by the employee himself at any time earlier during the same block.

9. Class of accommodation and encashment of leave travel concession

- (1) The encashment under these regulation shall be limited to 1500 kms. each way by the entitled class, by rail travel, not exceeding A/C III tire. For the purpose of this regulation, "family" shall be limited to the employee, his or her spouse and children subject to a limitation of four tickets and such encashment shall also be to the extent of 75% of the entitled fare.

10 Reimbursement

Reimbursement under these regulations shall not cover incidental expenses and expenditure incurred on local journey. Reimbursement for expenses of journey shall be allowed only on the basis of a point to point journey on a through ticket over the shortest direct route.

11. Forfeiture of claim

Where no advance is drawn by the employee, the right of an employe for reimbursement of leave travel concession claim stands forfeited or deemed to have been relinquished, if the claim for it is not preferred within three months of the date of completion of the return journey. If advance is drawn, the final bill should be preferred within one month of the completion of return journey. If that is not done, the entire advance should be recovered in lump-sum after which it will be taken as if no advance had been drawn and the claim preferred within three months of completion of the return journey.

13. Grant of advance and adjustment thereof

- (1) Advance may be granted to employee to enable him to avail himself of the concession. The amount of such advance in each case shall be limited to 90 percent of the estimated amount which the Society shall have to reimburse in respect of the cost of the journey both ways.
- (2) If the family travels separately from the employee, the advance may also be drawn separately to the extent admissible.
- (3) The advance may be drawn both for the forward and return journeys at the time of commencement of the forward journey, provided the period of leave taken by the employee or the period of anticipated absence of the members of the family does not exceed three months or ninety days. If this limit is exceeded, then the advance may be drawn for the outward journey only.
- (4) If the limit of three months or ninety days is exceeded after the advance has already been drawl for both the journeys, one half of the advance should be refunded to the Society forthwith.
- (5) The advance should be refunded in full, if the outward journey is not commended within 30 days of the grant of advance. However, in cases where reservations can be made sixty days before the proposed date of the outward journey and advance is granted accordingly, the employees should produce the tickets within ten days of the drawl of advance, irrespective of the date of commencement of the journey.
- (6) Where an advance has been drawn by the employee the claim for reimbursement of the expenditure incurred on the journey shall be submitted within one month of the completion of the return journey. On an employee failure to do so he shall be required to refund the entire amount of advance forthwith in one lump-sum. No request for recovery of advance in installments shall be entertained.

14. Fraudulent claim of Leave Travel Concession

- (1) If a decision is taken by the Disciplinary Authority to initiate disciplinary proceedings against an employee on the charge of preferring a fraudulent claim of leave travel concession, such an employee shall not be allowed the leave travel concession till the finalisation of such disciplinary proceedings.
- (2) If the disciplinary proceedings result in imposition of any penalty, the employee shall not be allowed the next two sets of the leave travel concession in addition to the sets already withheld during the pendency of the disciplinary proceedings. For reasons to be recorded in writing, the Competent Authority can also disallow more than two sets of leave travel concession.

- (3) If the employee is fully exonerated of the charge of fraudulent claim of leave travel concession, he shall be allowed to avail of the concession withheld earlier as additional set(s) in future block year but before the normal date of his superannuation.

Explanation: For the purpose of this regulation, leave travel concession to home town and to any place in India as specified in sub-regulation (1) and (2) regulation 6 shall constitute two sets of the leave concession.

15. Interpretation

If there is any doubt regarding any of the provisions in these regulations, the matter shall be referred to the Director who shall decide the same.

16. Power to relax

Director of the Society may, at his discretion in deserving cases, for reasons to be recorded, relax any of the conditions under these regulations.

NOTE: For smooth implementation of the regulation notified, it is further stated that in case of any doubts in respect of the procedure or entitlement, the clarification issued from time to time specific to these issues, would also apply. Whenever it is contravening any specific provision of the regulation notified in such case reference may be made to Hqrs.
